Giggles and Girls is more than please to be a part of your daughter(s) developmental growth and character upbringing that propel her to superior heights. If we are going to shape and change the future as it appeal to young females it must be done today with real role models that reflect what L. O. G. P. stands for audacity (boldness), elegance (grace) essence (real meaning), equality (fairness), integrity (honesty) and foremost appeal (calling).

Guidance is the heart of this program and responsibility for ones actions must be placed upon each applicant that include herself in the process 100%. Your being involved says a lot about what you want and desire for your daughter(s) as a parent. We applaud you and invite you to assist us in being the very best we can be for all these young ladies as one huge mountain of knowledge, strength, faith, hope and love. Caring and sharing our joy, pain, trials, victories, fears as well as our tears must be real so real that it penetrates the very soul and mind of this group of girls. We must allow our struggles to be their strength for the journey until they can truly understand what it takes to survive in a world that want to leave under age minority females in sub-par conditions and employment opportunities that will forever keep them in poverty and lower class living conditions.

LOGP goal is to illustrate, educate and graduate a female leader or an army of leaders that will lead the next generation (sister to sister) moving forward in the struggle of excellence to achieve more doing more and becoming more. In conclusion we are building on the past, marching in the present and moving on the future. One having inspiration and admiration like no other generation of women yet mindful enough to pass it on to another creation in the making; for all time.

Sincerely,

Lady Kim Brooks
